

Describe the various reasons why Americans supported the Allies before officially joining the war. _____

Crash Course WWI- Write 5 things you learned down.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

War on the Homefront- Fostering Support and Eliminating Opposition

Selling the War

- _____ (America with the fresh troops in the 4th Q)
- Allies push for American involvement
 - Propaganda
 - Limited information
- _____ joins the Allies

Committee

- Created to sell the war through _____
 - “_____ men”
 - Propaganda posters
 - _____
 - _____
- American Protective League: A _____ (snitches)
 - Identified _____ for the federal government.

The Draft

- _____
- 1917 - _____
 - No _____
 - _____; _____ called into service
 - Very little training

Supporting Our Boys “Over There”

- _____
- Blacks _____
- Military dogs were highly important to the war effort
- _____

Food Administration

- _____
- Relied on _____
 - _____, Wheat-less Wednesdays,
- Encouraged _____

Fuel Administration

- _____ the war effort
 - Lightless Nights, Heatless Tuesdays
 - _____
- Not nearly as popular as the Food Administration

Americans on the Move

- _____ and Cleveland.
- Took over _____.
- _____.
- Mexican farm labor: _____, settling mainly in the _____.

War Industries Board and National War Labor Board

- War Industries Board: _____
- Difficult to do in an era still attached to _____
- National War Labor Board: created to _____
- Businesses were _____
 - _____
 - Not Supported by the IWW

Anti-German Sentiment

- German-Americans were largely loyal to the United States, but were branded as spies and saboteurs.

- German names were re-branded to more "patriotic" names.

Espionage and Sedition Acts

- _____
- _____
- _____
- Essentially negated the _____
- Trading With the Enemy Act: _____ during wartime
- Also imprisoned those who _____.

Protecting Liberties

- _____
- Created to _____; used legal system to protect citizens and _____
- _____; the Supreme Court invented the famous " _____ " test to determine when _____
- During times of war, your rights (liberties) can be taken away from you. (S)- _____

Epidemic

- _____
- Unclear origins, but _____
 - Unworthy nickname of the Spanish Flu
- The _____.